New Business

- JCR Training
General discussion on JCR training provided by RUSU. Mostly to do with Freshers' week.
- The Swan
 - Lighting
To be acquired for the sum of £29.99. Browsing to be done on Wednesday. Look at whether brackets may be required for mounting on the wall above the large TV in The Swan. Bubble Machine also mentioned – possible damage to interior of the room.
 - Karaoke
To be arranged for the Sunday after exams (7th June).
 - Games Machines
Repositioning of machines such as the House of the Dead arcade machine. Possibility to try and obtain an Itbox.
- New Website
New website with login for committee to update profiles etc. It will provide a friendlier interface and more information, including more up-to-date information.
- Facebook
For discussion prior to arrival. Formals and theme information on events. All committee members to be added as admins to change information. Links for Facebook groups to be posted (already available on website)

- Amendments to the Constitution
Approved. General questions asked about updates. 2 sections changed regarding honorary life membership. Future amendments to it will require approval by the JCR. Notice of changes and recommendations should possibly be emailed to all members prior to meetings. General Meeting to be declared shortly (see notes at end).
- Sport
Option of communal tennis rackets. Squash rackets confirmed to be available
- JCRC Positions
Representatives for Entertainment and Male Welfare still required. Mark Lawson to act as the temporary entertainment officer (for bar quizzes etc.)
- Hoodies
Re-open hoodie orders for sale this term
- Catering
 - Catering Hours
Less restrictive hours on catering, particularly breakfast. Checks to be made on early breakfasts for those with 9am exams. Packs of cereal to be offered after-hours.
 - Event Catering
Rules indicate that central or hall catering are required for events. This will directly affect upcoming events such as the Summer BBQ which is to be discussed at a later meeting.
- Required Itinerary
Microphones for The Swan
- General Meeting
To be held on Wednesday 29th April in the dining hall.
Appointment of Entertainment and Male Welfare Officer to take place.
- Upcoming Events
 - Film Night on Friday 24th April
Film to be announced. Possibly Quantum of Solace although yet undecided.

Meeting Concluded at 8:15pm
